CATHOLIC EDUCATION WEEK 6 - 11 MAY 2018

The Catholic schools in our parish will engage in a series of events to celebrate the ongoing gift of publicly funded Catholic education. You are invited to discover what celebrations are happening in your children's school and if possible, attend. Publicly funded Catholic education has existed in Ontario since 1841 and its graduates have served Ontario and Canada very well. The current generation of students in our publicly funded Catholic schools will serve with the same spirit and generosity as their previous generations.

This year's Catholic Education Week theme is "Renewing the Promise." The theme for CEW 2018 draws upon previous documents on Ontario Catholic education, namely, "This Moment of Promise" (1989), "Fulfilling the Promise" (1993) and "Our Catholic Schools" (2006- 2007). These three documents, while several years apart from each other, all speak of the unique mission of Ontario Catholic education, the importance of its shared leadership by all those involved in Catholic education and the critical role of Catholic education in contemporary society. Catholic Education Week 2018 combines the themes of reconciliation, solidarity, love, justice and ecology.

The CEW biblical quote is "For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." - Acts 2:39

SPECIAL COLLECTION ~ MAY 5th & 6th

The Pope's Pastoral Works Collection was established by the Bishops of Canada in 1970. The Papal Charities allow the Pope to contribute to various charitable causes around the world, particularly in aiding victims of war, famine and natural disasters. By contributing to the Pope's Pastoral Works, the faithful of Canada give a universal dimension to their charity.

Vocations Corner...

The greatest love story that ever happened:
God's continuing love for His people.

All God asks is, "Love one another as I have loved you".

The world really needs to see people who are trying to love others with all their hearts. Priests, religious and deacons can be excellent examples of this love.

If you are willing to answer God's call please call Fr. Christ Lemieux, Vocation Office, Archdiocese of Toronto, 416-968-0997.

The Call for Conscience 2018 Campaign

In February, Cardinal Collins and Bishops across Ontario asked for an email address from every Catholic family in their community, with a goal of 100,000 email addresses collected in Ontario. This information will be used locally by Cardinal Collins and trusted faith partners to communicate periodically (6 to 8 times a year) on issues of particular importance for the Catholic community.

If you have not yet signed up and you would like to do so, you can still have your name included by visiting: <http://bit.ly/SignUpSundayRegistration>.

Thank You For Your Generosity

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls his disciples and us his friends. Friendship is a valuable gift. It requires generosity, honesty and mutual love. A true friend understands us even when we remain silent and accepts us as we are. Jesus' self-giving love for us, his friends, forms the model for the love we are to have for one another.

Jesus has no secrets with his disciples. He opens his heart to them, revealing to them the knowledge the Father has given him and his love for each of them. He demonstrates his profound love and that of his Father by laying down his life for us, suffering and dying on the cross for our salvation. His love has no limits, embracing everyone and giving everything. Jesus invites us to enter into his love and to express this love in our daily lives. This challenging love consists in making sacrifices and reaching out to others freely. It involves loving to the end, with Jesus' same compassion with selflessness. Only if we love one another as he has loved us can we be his true friends.

Jesus offers us his love and friendship, a relationship that will transform our lives and give us true joy. Let us accept his offer today by having faith in him and sharing his merciful love with others.

(Nada Mazzie, Living With Christ)

Durante la lettura del Vangelo, nel corso della celebrazione liturgica, è il Signore Gesù Cristo che parla ai suoi discepoli. Oggi ci dice che siamo tutti suoi amici, che gli apparteniamo attraverso la fede e attraverso il battesimo. Egli l'ha provato rivelandoci il suo segreto e la sua missione di Figlio di Dio. Ci ha detto che Dio, nella sua onnipotenza divina, ci ama tutti. Per mezzo di suo Figlio Gesù Cristo, ci ha fatto entrare nella comunione di amore che esiste fin dall'eternità tra lui e suo Figlio. "Come il Padre ha amato me, così anch'io ho amato voi". È una parola di verità potente e divina.

Per tutti quelli che hanno preso coscienza dell'importanza di questo dono divino, conta una sola cosa: mostrarsi degni dell'amore che ci viene nell'amicizia del Figlio di Dio. "Rimanete nel mio amore".

Per Gesù Cristo, ciò che è importante innanzitutto è che tutti i suoi amici si amino gli uni gli altri come egli stesso ha amato i suoi discepoli nel corso della sua vita terrena. La più viva espressione di questo amore è stata la sua morte sulla croce per i peccatori (cf. Gv 1,36; 19,34-37). L'amore perfetto del Padre celeste è la felicità e la gioia di suo Figlio. E questa gioia, il Figlio risuscitato la trasmette ai suoi amici nel giorno di Pasqua. "Pace a voi! Come il Padre ha mandato me, anch'io mando voi!". Ricevete lo Spirito Santo!" (Gv 20,21-22). Egli offre senza sosta la gioia a tutti quelli che credono nella sua parola e per mezzo del battesimo si uniscono a lui e alla sua cerchia di amici, la Chiesa. Chi entra nell'amore di Dio per mezzo di suo Figlio ha ormai una ragione essenziale per essere sempre felice.
