Eucharistic Adoration

Our parish has Eucharistic Adoration in the church every Friday from 8:30am to 7pm. Can you spare a few moments from your busy schedule to come and spend some time before Jesus in prayer and adoration?

Shepherds' Trust Collection November 17th/18th

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity.

For many of our retired shepherds, this means, "lending a hand" to accommodate their special needs so that they continue to live with dignity.

The Shepherds' Trust collection will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese during the weekend of November 17/18.

This fund does more than just support our priests in their retirement years; it is a tangible way to care for those who always cared for us and give thanks for the blessings we have received through them. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Thank You For Your Generosity

"Lord teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life."

- St. Ignatius Loyola

The gospel is a series of contrasts - rich and poor, greedy and generous, arrogant and humble and it is not difficult to guess which of them Jesus is praising.

He praises true religion in the widow who gave all she had in the cause of God. He berates the co-existence of long prayers and the greed which took away the property of people like this widow. The religious people of the day were meant to look after the widow and the orphan who had nobody else to fight their cause.

The Eucharist each week is the involving of ourselves in the total loving of Jesus for his Father and for us, especially the poor. This means we rejoice in the message of Jesus, and that he is on the side of the poorest, and on everyone's side when we are not at our best. It is also the challenge for us to be that loving energy of God for the world in which we live in, for those who are near and for those who are far away. We are the ones to show God's care for creation, justice, peace and reconciliation and to give time to worship God in common and in private - to ensure a space and time for prayer in each day.

The widow of the gospel had a generous heart, as did the widow in the first reading (1 Kings 17:10-16). They looked outward to the needs of others and gave what they could. Can we not do the same?

Gesù contrappone qui due tipi di comportamento religioso. Il primo è quello degli scribi pretenziosi che si pavoneggiano ed usano la religione per farsi valere. Gesù riprende questo atteggiamento e lo condanna senza alcuna pietà. Il secondo comportamento è invece quello della vedova povera che, agli occhi degli uomini, compie un gesto irrisorio, ma, per lei, carico di conseguenze, in quanto si priva di ciò di cui ha assolutamente bisogno. Gesù loda questo atteggiamento e lo indica come esempio ai suoi discepoli per la sua impressionante autenticità. Non è quanto gli uomini notano che ha valore agli occhi di Dio, perché Dio non giudica dall'apparenza, ma guarda il cuore (1Sam 16,7). Gesù vuole che guardiamo in noi stessi. La salvezza non è una questione di successo, e ancor meno di parvenze. La salvezza esige che l'uomo conformi le azioni alle sue convinzioni. In tutto ciò che fa, specialmente nella sua vita religiosa, l'uomo dovrebbe sempre stare attento a non prendersi gioco di Dio. Scrive san Paolo: "Non vi fate illusioni; non ci si può prendere gioco di Dio. Ciascuno raccoglierà quello che avrà seminato" (Gal 6,7).

Il Signore chiede che si abbia un cuore puro, una fede autentica, una fiducia totale. Questa donna non ha nulla. È vedova, e dunque senza appoggio e senza risorse. È povera, senza entrate e senza garanzie. Eppure dà quello che le sarebbe necessario per vivere, affidandosi a Dio per non morire. Quando la fede arriva a tal punto, il cuore di Cristo si commuove, poiché sa che Dio è amato, e amato per se stesso. L'avvenire della Chiesa, il nostro avvenire, per i quali le apparenze contano tanto, è nelle mani di questi veri credenti.
