Shepherds' Trust Collection - November 17th/18th

The Shepherds' Trust collection will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese this weekend.

The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity. This fund does more than just support our priests in their retirement years; it is a tangible way to care for those who always cared for us and give thanks for the blessings we have received through them.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Let us pray!

For the sick members of our parish and for those who love and minister to them.

All Souls Remembrance: $ 4,505.00

Thank You For Your Generosity

In this week's Gospel, Jesus reminds his disciples to learn the lesson of the fig tree, that summer will follow new leaves. He asks us to also be attentive to the end of things. At the close of the church year, we practise being attentive to the ends of things: suffering, darkness and things falling apart.

Jesus promised that when we see darkness and destruction, suffering and pain, "he is near, at the very gates." Ironically, in the most difficult times of our lives, many of us are more likely to feel alone and distanced from God. It is easy to see summer coming after the spring, and harder to recognize the winter as the birthplace of spring. Jesus is inviting his disciples, and us, to remember that he draws near now, in the messiness of our world.

The central mystery of our faith is that death is followed by rising. God brings new life from ashes, sends a baby to save the world, dies to death when he walks out of the tomb. No matter how messy life has become, God invites us to be the people who pay attention, who wait for and expect new life.

May our hearts turn with gratitude toward God in the midst of struggle, hoping to see what gifts he will bring out of the difficulty.

(Leah Perrault, Living With Christ)

Quando si chiede ad un bambino della seconda metà del ventesimo secolo che cosa sia per lui la fine del mondo, risponde in termini di catastrofe e di annientamento, così come suggeriscono la bomba atomica e l'inquinamento. Ma quando si interroga Gesù sulla fine dei tempi, risponde in termini di pienezza e di ritorno. Egli afferma con forza che il Figlio dell'uomo ritornerà; non, come è già venuto, per annunciare il regno (Mc 1,15) e il tempo della misericordia (Gv 3,17), ma perché tutto si compia (1Cor 15,28). Allora ognuno troverà il proprio posto (1Cor 14,2-3) e otterrà la sua ricompensa in funzione delle proprie opere (Mt 16,27). La predicazione di Gesù è carica di questa preoccupazione: aprire gli occhi agli uomini sui segni premonitori di questa fine del mondo che non sarà una caduta nel nulla, ma un ingresso nella gloria. Ma ciò che resta e resterà nascosto, è la data di questo istante. Questo è un segreto del Padre. Egli non l'ha ancora svelato. Ecco perché la Parola (il Figlio) non lo sa. Il Padre non ha ancora espresso questo pensiero, per via della sua pazienza infinita e della sua bontà illimitata (2Pt 3,9). Inutile insistere (At 1,6-7) e chiedere: "Perché?". Per il momento, questo non ci riguarda e non è nemmeno utile per noi saperlo. La sola cosa che conta è sapere che questo ritorno di Cristo ci sarà e che bisogna prepararsi ad esso, altrimenti ci si ritroverà irrimediabilmente esclusi dal Regno (Mt 25,11-12; Lc 13,25).
