Thank You For Your Generosity

Today we begin the new liturgical year. We will spend the year, like every liturgical year, following the life of Jesus from the time of John the Baptist's preaching to the great salvific events of Jesus' Passion, death, Resurrection, Ascension and giving of the Holy Spirit. Each liturgical season helps us meditate upon and pray over the life of Jesus, whom we strive to imitate as disciples.

Today's Gospel paints a frightening picture of huge natural calamities heralding the end. We pray not to have to live through such events. Similarly, as Advent progresses we will hear the call of John the Baptist to repent and amend our ways. Being honest with our sinfulness in the face of such preaching can be depressing.

But do not stop at the frightening side of these modes of preparing ourselves. Realize that we are being called to look beyond them to see the light, the beauty of God's promise. "Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." Our Redeemer is coming; indeed, he is in our midst. Regardless of what we must go through, whether it be disaster or the slavery of sin, our merciful and loving God is waiting to wrap warm and tender arms around us, the in-God's-only-Son Beloved.

(Fr. Mark Miller, CSsR, Living with Christ)

Il Vangelo di Luca è indirizzato ai cristiani della sua epoca ma anche a quelli di tutti i tempi, che devono vivere nella fede del Signore in mezzo al mondo. Sono parole di consolazione e di speranza, di fronte alle tribolazioni e alle tristezze della vita.

Gli stessi avvenimenti che disorientano gli uomini saranno per i cristiani il segno che l'ora della salvezza si avvicina. Dietro tutte le peripezie, per quanto dolorose possano essere, essi potranno scoprire il Signore che annuncia la sua venuta, la sua redenzione, e l'inizio di una nuova era. La venuta del Signore non è considerata come una cosa vicina nel tempo. I cristiani devono pensare che la storia duri a lungo, fino alla creazione definitiva del Regno di Dio. È necessario dunque che essi abbiano un'attitudine paziente di fronte alle avversità, e perseverante nel cammino che li conduce alla vita piena.

Così, il vangelo mette in guardia contro il pericolo di rilassarsi nel quotidiano. Bisogna restare vigili, in preghiera, e chiedere forza, perché ogni affanno terreno smussa i cuori, distrae il pensiero e impedisce di vivere, senza angoscia né sorpresa, l'attesa gioiosa del Signore che è misericordia e vita nuova.
