2nd SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Lately I've been feeling that a lot of things are off track in the world. Despite our having enough food to feed the planet, millions are starving. Even in Canada, a land of plenty, countless families rely on food banks. We know we need to care for the Earth, our common home, but we buy too much stuff and fill our world with garbage and pollution. Despite seeing the damage conflict causes, we think peace is out of our reach.

Baruch and John the Baptist speak of the Lord making the crooked straight and the rough ways smooth; this gives me hope that we can find some balance. John the Baptist invites the people of his day, and us, to turn back to God and prepare the way of the Lord - not only during Advent, but all year long.

As followers of Christ, we are meant to live in ways that make the crooked straight. Of course, it's not always easy. It means doing things differently. We may even need to spend some time in the wilderness - disconnect from social media, the Internet, malls and TV - to adjust our attitudes and rediscover what's important. But when we do, we will truly understand that, as today's psalm tells us, "The Lord has done great things for us," and we will be "filled with joy."

(Anne Louise Mahoney, Living with Christ)

La seconda domenica di Avvento presenta la figura di Giovanni Battista come segno della venuta della salvezza di Dio. La storia vive qui il suo culmine: il momento più atteso e più desiderato, il momento dell'annuncio del regno di Dio che comincia: il Messia sta per arrivare. Nella tradizione dei grandi profeti dell'Antico Testamento, la parola di Dio è rivolta a Giovanni nel deserto. Giovanni - figlio di Zaccaria - diventa così profeta e precursore del Messia.

Malgrado le paure e il terrore che ispira, il deserto è, nella memoria religiosa del popolo di Israele, il luogo di riunione, dove Dio ha parlato al cuore del suo popolo, il luogo dove Dio è stato più che mai il pastore del suo gregge.

Del deserto Giovanni denuncia e ricorda l'identità religiosa più particolare del suo popolo: il Dio d'Israele è fedele al suo legame e mantiene le sue promesse di salvezza. Convoca di nuovo i suoi nel deserto, per annunciare loro l'arrivo del Messia. Ma Dio si aspetta sempre dall'uomo un minimo di collaborazione ed esigerà da lui un battesimo di conversione, la purificazione dei suoi peccati, e lo sforzo di superare gli ostacoli che gli impediscono di vedere l'alba della salvezza.

"The season of Advent restores . . . a hope which does not disappoint for it is founded on God's Word. A hope which does not disappoint, simply because the Lord never disappoints! . . . Let us think about and feel this beauty." - Pope Francis
