Proposed Expansion of Euthanasia

On Monday, February 24, 2020, the federal government introduced Bill C-7, an Act to Amend the Criminal Code (Medical Assistance in Dying). The bill expands what they refer to as medical assistance in dying but is more accurately called euthanasia/assisted suicide. More than 13,000 Canadians have been euthanized since 2016. New legislation would make assisted death available to those without life-threatening illnesses, including those with disabilities and those no longer capable of making decisions for themselves. Some Canadians may even be euthanized on the same day they make the request. Please get involved by sending a prepared letter to your Member of Parliament expressing your deep concern and opposition to the bill. The letter can be found at www.helptheliving.ca. Additional information can also be found at: www.archtoronto.org/euthanasia. We continue to pray and advocate for the vulnerable among us.

Thank You For Your Generosity

I once did a day hike in a desert-like landscape on a hot day in July. By noon, I had no water left in my water bottle. I began to experience an increasingly painful thirst. My throat was parched. My whole body was crying for water while the desert sun kept beating down on me.

The desert can be an image for a period of suffering that we experience in our lives. We can feel so drained, so tired of pain, so distressed. We thirst for some relief, for a better time. We languish.

The Samaritan woman was thirsty. Not just for water but mainly for a better life. She meets Jesus who offers her hope. In fact, he makes a promise to her: "The one who drinks of the water that I will give will never be thirsty." This sounds too good to be true. But Jesus insists by saying that he is offering her life in all its fullness. She believes in him and her life is transformed.

Jesus invites us today to follow him more closely. As the psalm says, "O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord." By listening to his infinitely merciful and caring voice, we can bring to him the parched and hurting parts of our lives and be transformed.

~ Emmanuel Martel, Living with Christ

La conversazione di Gesù con la Samaritana si svolge sul tema dell'"acqua viva". Quest'acqua è indispensabile alla vita, e non è sorprendente che, nelle regioni del Medio Oriente dove regna la siccità, essa sia semplicemente il simbolo della vita e, anche, della salvezza dell'uomo in un senso più generale.

Questa vita, questa salvezza, si possono ricevere solo aprendosi per accogliere il dono di Dio. È questa la convinzione dell'antico Israele come della giovane comunità cristiana. E l'autore dei Salmi parla così al suo Dio: "È in te la sorgente della vita" (Sal 036,10). Ecco la sua professione di fede: "Come la cerva anela ai corsi d'acqua, così l'anima mia anela a te, o Dio" (Sal 042,2). La salvezza che Dio porta viene espressa con l'immagine della sorgente che zampilla sotto l'entrata del tempio e diventa un grande fiume che trasforma in giardino il deserto della Giudea e fa del mar Morto un mare pieno di vita (Ez 47,1-12).

Gesù vuole offrire a noi uomini questa salvezza e questa vita. Per calmare definitivamente la nostra sete di vita e di salvezza. "Io, sono venuto perché abbiano la vita e l'abbiano in abbondanza" (Gv 10,10).

Eucharistic Miracles of the World

The exhibit's purpose is to increase awareness of the Real Presence of our Lord in the Eucharist and promote Eucharistic Adoration.
