THE MERCY OF THE LORD RENEWS OUR LIFE

The author of the book of Wisdom invites us to rediscover God, provident Creator of the universe, always ready to admonish with tenderness and willing to forgive those who repent. He closed his eyes on our sins with a view to our repentance. In the Gospel, we are presented with the encounter of Jesus, face of mercy of the Father, with Zacchè, chief of the tax collectors and rich, which took place in Jericho. Looking for Jesus, he climbs a sycamore tree, because the Master had to pass that way. Jesus, arrives at the place, looks at him with fondness of predilection and asks him to get off the tree, because now he wants to stay at his house. Zacchaeus gets up and tells the Lord that he intends to give half of his goods to the poor, and return quadruple, if he has stolen from someone. Here is the true conversion that comes from the encounter with Jesus, here is the radical following of the teacher who fills us with joy, giving our existence a convivial banquet open to all. The apostle Paul prays for the Christians of Tessalonica, so that the Lord may make them worthy of the call to loving intimacy with him, completing the work of goodness and holiness started in them with Baptism.

LA MISERICORDIA DEL SIGNORE RINNOVA LA NOSTRA VITA

L'autore del libro della Sapienza ci invita a riscoprire Dio, Creatore provvidente dell'universo, sempre pronto ad ammonire con tenerezza e disposto a perdonare chi si pente. Egli gli occhi chiusi sui nostri peccati in vista del nostro pentimento. Nel Vangelo ci viene presentato l'incontro di Gesù, volto della misericordia del Padre, con Zacchè, capo dei pubblicani e ricco, avvenuto a Gerico. Egli, cercando Gesù, sale su un sicomoro, perché il Maestro doveva passare di là. Gesù, giunto sul luogo, lo guarda con affetto di predilezione e gli chiede di scendere dall'albero, perché ora vuole fermarsi a casa sua. Zaccheo si alza e dice al Signore che intende donare la metà dei suoi beni ai poveri, e restituire il quadruplo, se ha rubato a qualcuno. Ecco la vera conversione che nasce dall'incontro con Gesù; ecco la sequela radicale del maestro che ci colma di gioia, rendendo la nostra esistenza un banchetto conviviale aperto a tutti. L'apostolo Paolo prega per i cristiani di Tessalonica, perché il Signore li renda degni della chiamata all'intimità amorosa con lui, portando a compimento l'opera di bontà e di santità iniziato in loro con il Battesimo.
