READINGS for Today November 13, 2022

1st Reading - Malachi 4.1-2

2nd Reading - 2 Thessalonians 3.7-12

Gospel - Luke 21.5-19

I WILL GIVE YOU WORD AND WISDOM

How often do we read Jesus' words on judgment and persecutions as if they do not concern us! Yet the persecution of Christians today is increasingly violent and often it reaches us directly, when we are condemned because we reject a thought that is without God. How precious, then, are the words of Jesus, who tells us that these trials must happen: they are the pains of the birth of history on its way to its certain horizon, which is eternal bliss. And, will never have less support of the Lord who promises: "I will give you word and wisdom". The horizon is that of eternal bliss, but this does not mean disengagement from the reality of the world, like those Christians of Thessalonica who lived "doing nothing and always in agitation". On the contrary, this horizon gives value and meaning to our commitment: working to make pride and injustice disappear, we allow the love and truth of the Gospel to permeate history. The certainty that the "sun of justice" will rise with beneficial rays he gives us strength to fully live our responsibility as Christians, as authentic witnesses of the Gospel.

IO VI DARÒ PAROLA E SAPIENZA

Quante volte leggiamo le parole di Gesù sul giudizio e sulle persecuzioni come se non ci riguardassero! Eppure, la persecuzione dei cristiani è oggi sempre più violenta e spesso ci raggiunge direttamente, quando veniamo condannati perché rifiutiamo un pensiero che fa a meno di Dio. Come sono preziose, allora, le parole di Gesù, che ci dice che queste prove devono accadere: sono i dolori del parto della storia in cammino verso il suo orizzonte certo, che è la beatitudine eterna. E mai ci verrà meno il sostegno del Signore che promette: «Io vi darò parola e sapienza». L'orizzonte è quello della beatitudine eterna, ma questo non significa disimpegno dalla realtà del mondo, come quei cristiani di Tessalonica che vivevano «senza fare nulla e sempre in agitazione». Al contrario, quest'orizzonte dà valore e senso al nostro impegno: lavorando perché scompaiano superbia e ingiustizia, permettiamo all'amore e alla verità del Vangelo di permeare la storia. La certezza che il «sole di giustizia» sorgerà con raggi benefici ci dona forza per vivere appieno questa nostra responsabilità di cristiani, di testimoni autentici del Vangelo.
