SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

READINGS for this SUNDAY, December 4, 2022 (2 Advent A)

1st Reading - Isaiah 11.1 - 10

2nd Reading - Romans 15.4 - 9

Gospel - Matthew 3.1 - 12

PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD, STRAIGHTEN HIS TRAILS

The Messiah will come to sow true peace, not just any pacifism. Rich in the "Spirit of the Lord", he will take care of the poor and the oppressed and will bring reconciliation even between natural enemies, such as wolf and lamb, but he will violently strike the wicked until he kills him "with the breath of his lips". So proclaimed the ancient prophet Isaiah. The prophet John the Baptist understood this truth well. In the desert of Judea, on the banks of the Jordan, he took the people and invited them to conversion: "Prepare the way of the Lord, straighten his paths". Loud as thunder must have been his voice and maybe even rough, a bit like the dress he wore and the food he ate. He wanted to awaken consciences asleep in Pharisees and in the external observance of the Law. His baptism «in the water for the conversion" was only a prelude to the great gift that the Messiah would have given with baptism "in the Holy Spirit and fire". And you, now? We too to bear "good fruit" and to be "wheat in God's barn", we must welcome our brothers and sisters with love, as Christ welcomes each one of us. This is the only way we can celebrate Christmas!

PREPARATE LA VIA DEL SIGNORE, RADDRIZZATE I SUOI SENTIERI

Il Messia verrà per seminare pace vera, non un pacifismo qualunque. Ricco dello «Spirito del Signore», egli si prenderà cura dei miseri e degli oppressi e porterà riconciliazione anche tra nemici naturali, come lupo e agnello, ma percuoterà violentemente l'empio fino a ucciderlo «con il soffio delle sue labbra». Così annunciava l'antico profeta Isaia. Il profeta Giovanni Battista aveva ben compreso questa verità. Nel deserto della Giudea, sulle rive del Giordano, scuoteva il popolo e lo invitava alla conversione: «Preparate la via del Signore, raddrizzate i suoi sentieri». Forte come un tuono doveva essere la sua voce e forse anche rude, un po' come il vestito che indossava e il cibo di cui si nutriva. Egli voleva svegliare le coscienze assopite nel fariseismo e nell'osservanza esteriore della Legge. Il suo battesimo «nell'acqua per la conversione» era solo un preludio al grande dono che il Messia avrebbe fatto con il battesimo «in Spirito Santo e fuoco». E tu, adesso? Anche noi per portare «buon frutto» ed essere «frumento nel granaio» di Dio, dobbiamo accogliere i fratelli con amore, come Cristo accoglie ognuno di noi. Solo così potremo celebrare il Natale!
