EASTER SUNDAY - RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

READINGS for SUNDAY, April 9

(EASTER SUNDAY - RESURRECTION OF THE LORD)

1st Reading - Acts 10.34a, 37 - 43

2nd Reading - Colossians 3.1 - 4

Gospel - John 20.1 - 18

WITH THE EYES OF THE RISEN

Alleluia! Today, Christ is risen and in him the passage to eternal life is opened to us. From the bottom of the sepulcher as from the baptismal font, salvation has sprung for us. New life was released from the abyss of sin and death, the life of the children of God, who are reborn never to die again. "This was done by the Lord, a wonder for our eyes" Yes, whoever has passed with Christ from death to life contemplates reality with new eyes, like those of the disciple John: eyes of heaven capable of perceiving in the earth marked by the bright signs of resurrected life. The sepulcher is empty, the stone removed, the cloths placed, the shroud carefully wrapped...the beloved disciple "saw and believed". What is Easter if not a "passage of gaze"? From seeing with the eyes of the body to contemplating with the eyes of the Spirit. If in the Gospel the disciples do not yet encounter the Risen One, it is because the first true Easter gift is the faith that comes from their hearts, as from ours: the ability to see and understand history beyond what appears, with the eyes of the Risen One, as of now to be partakers of his glory.

CON GLI OCCHI DEL RISORTO

Alleluia! Oggi Cristo è risorto e in lui è aperto il passaggio alla vita eterna. Dal fondo del sepolcro come dal fonte battesimale è scaturita per noi la salvezza. Dall'abisso del peccato e della morte si è sprigionata la vita nuova, la vita dei figli di Dio, che rinasce per non morire più. "Questo è stato fatto dal Signore, una meraviglia ai nostri occhi" Sì, chi è passato con Cristo da morte a vita contempla la realtà con occhi nuovi, come quelli del discepolo Giovanni: occhi di cielo capaci di scorgere nella terra segnata dalle ombre i segni luminosi della vita risorta. Vuoto è il sepolcro, la pietra, tolta, i teli posati, il sudario avvolto con cura...il discepolo amato "vide e credette". Che cos'è la Pasqua se non un "passaggio di sguardo"? Dal vedere con gli occhi del corpo al contemplare con gli occhi dello Spirito. Se nel Vangelo i discepoli non incontrano ancora il Risorto, è perché il primo vero dono pasquale è la fede che nasce dal loro cuore, come dal nostro: la capacità di vedere e comprendere la storia oltre ciò che appare, con gli occhi del Risorto, per essere sin d'ora partecipi della sua gloria.
