TO THE SOURCES OF SALVATION

Generated by the breath of the Spirit, we have entered the eighth day, Eternity. The liturgy today refers us to the profound meaning of our Baptism, making us draw from the springs of Easter which flowed from Christ's passion, death and resurrection. It's an immersion in life! With the apostle Thomas we celebrate our "second birth": we are born to the faith because we are regenerated by the "great mercy" of the Father and, participating in this gift, we discover together the Body of Christ, his Church, a community of the saved, sent to bring salvation in the world in need of reconciliation. In the body of the risen Lord we find imprinted the signs of our wounded humanity, which he bears upon himself. Love has not erased them, but redeemed them; he made them "sacrament of salvation", so that through them they continue to pour torrents of mercy into us. The baptismal resurrection does not take us away from the daily effort of believing but, through the various trials of life, it regenerates us "for a living hope": our inheritance of loved and forgiven children who now confess, even without seeing: "My Lord and my God!"

ALLE SORGENTI DELLA SALVEZZA

Generati dal soffio dello Spirito, siamo entrati nell'ottavo giorno, l'Eternità. La liturgia ci rimanda oggi al senso profondo del nostro Battesimo, facendoci attingere alle sorgenti della Pasqua scaturite della passione, morte e risurrezione di Cristo. È un'immersione nella vita! Con l'apostolo Tommaso celebriamo la nostra "seconda nascita": siamo nati alla fede perchè rigenerati dalla "grande misericordia" del Padre e, partecipi di questo dono, ci scopriamo insieme Corpo di Cristo, sua Chiesa, comunità di salvati, inviati a portare la salvezza nel mondo bisognoso di riconciliazione. Nel corpo del Signore risorto troviamo impressi i segni della nostra umanità ferita, che lui ha su di sé. L'amore non li ha cancellati, ma redenti; li ha resi "sacramento di salvezza", perchè per essi continuo a riversarsi in noi torrenti di misericordia. La risurrezione battesimale non ci sottrae alla fatica quotidiana del credere ma, attraverso le varie prove della vita, ci rigenera "per una speranza viva": la nostra eredità di figli amati e perdonati che ora confessano, pur senza vedere: "Mio Signore e mio Dio!"
