READINGS for SUNDAY, April 23

(3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER)

1st Reading - Acts 2.14, 22b - 28

2nd Reading - 1 PETER 1.17 - 21

Gospel - Luke 24.13 - 35

AN EUCHARISTIC FAITH

Back in Jerusalem, Cleopas and her companion narrate "what had happened along the way and how they had recognized it in breaking bread". The encounter with the Risen One passes through two stages: first listening to the Word, then sharing the broken bread. The Risen One disappears from their sight, but now he lives in them, to the point of making their hearts burn and generating communion with all the other disciples, from whom the two had separated, but who now return to embrace, in Jerusalem, in the one shared faith. These are the same stages that we experience in every Eucharistic celebration: first listening to the Word and then communion in the Body and Blood of the Risen One. In between the two moments, for the two disciples there is the gesture of love, in the hospitality offered to the stranger. An availability that is also asked of us, in the awareness that the one we welcome in the Eucharist is the same Christ who first welcomed us. Peter, in his letter, invites us to turn our faith and hope to God. This means assuming the same paschal logic of Jesus' love, by virtue of that Spirit which, as Peter always announces in the Acts, he has poured out upon all of us.

UNA FEDE EUCARISTICA

Tornati a Gerusalemme, Cleopa e il suo compagno narrano "ciò che era accaduto lungo la via e come l'avevano riconosciuto nello spezzare il pane". L'incontro con il Risorto passa attraverso due tappe: dapprima l'ascolto della Parola, poi la condivisione del pane spezzato. Il Risorto sparisce dalla loro vista, ma adesso vive in loro, tanto da far ardere il loro cuore e generare la comunione con tutti gli altri discepoli, dai quali i due si erano separati, ma che ora tornano ad abbracciare, a Gerusalemme, nell'unica fede condivisa. Sono le stesse tappe che viviamo in ogni celebrazione eucaristica: prima l'ascolto della Parola e poi la comunione al Corpo e Sangue del Risorto. In mezzo, tra i due momenti, per i due discepoli c'è il gesto dell'amore, nell'ospitalità offerta allo straniero. Una disponibilità che è chiesta anche a noi, nella consapevolezza che colui che accogliamo nell'Eucaristia è lo stesso Cristo che per primo ha accolto noi. Pietro, nella sua lettera, ci invita a volgere la nostra fede e speranza a Dio. Ciò significa assumere la stessa logica pasquale dell'amore di Gesù, in forza di quello Spirito che, come sempre Pietro annuncia negli Atti, egli ha effuso su tutti noi.
