WE NEED HOLY MINISTERS

The Word of God offers us today the shining example of Paul and his companions in the apostolate, so fond of the faithful that they would have wanted to give them not only the gospel of God, but their very lives. At the same time, he warns us against unfaithful ministers, both those who, by straying from the right path, are a scandal to many, and those who say, but do not do. We are thus reminded of how much we need holy ministers. This holiness, however, does not depend only on them, but on all of us: "Do not call anyone 'father' on earth, because only one is your Father, the Father in heaven", says Jesus today. It's about finding the right way to relate to our pastors. To recognize them as our brothers, being careful not to put them on a pedestal that will make them fall; in a word, to love them, recognizing the stupendous gift that God has placed for us in their humanity, although poor like ours. And what, most of all, will convert the shepherds? The testimony of holiness of the faithful.

ABBIAMO BISOGNO DI MINISTRI SANTI

La Parola di Dio ci offre oggi l'esempio luminoso di Paolo e dei suoi compagni nell'apostolato, così affezionati ai fedeli che avrebbero desiderato dare loro non solo il vangelo di Dio, ma la loro stessa vita. Allo stesso tempo ci mette in guardia contro i ministri infedeli, sia quelli che allontanandosi dalla retta via sono di scandalo per molti, sia quelli che dicono e non fanno. Ci viene così ricordato quanto abbiamo bisogno di ministri santi. Questa santità, però, non dipende solo da loro ma da noi tutti: "Non chiamate nessuno "padre" sulla terra, perché uno solo è il Padre vostro, quello del cielo", di dice Gesù oggi. Si tratta di trovare il modo giusto di rapportarci con i nostri pastori. Di riconoscerli come nostri fratelli, guardandoci bene dal metterli su un piedestallo che li farà cadere; in una parola, di amarli, riconoscendo il dono stupendo che Dio ha deposto per noi nella loro umanità, benché povera come la nostra. E cosa, più di tutto, convertirà i pastori? La testimonianza di santità dei fedeli.
