READINGS for next SUNDAY, Jan. 28th

1st Reading - Deuteronomy 18.15 - 20

2nd Reading - 1 Corinthians 7.32 - 35

Gospel - Mark 1.21 - 28

THE RICHES OF THE WORD

Jesus is a singular teacher, different from the scribes. His teaching amazes those who listen to it: it is not static and cold, but gives new life and freshness to the things of God; it does not impose, but proposes. His word touches deeply, opens horizons of life, disturbs, awakens the mind and warms the heart, makes us grow inside and empowers. People dare to say that he teaches with authority: no dissociation in him between word and life. Jesus embodies the characteristics of the ideal prophet predicted by Moses. The Evil One is well aware of this when his cunningly flattering words fall on deaf ears in the face of the saving word of that prophet of God among the people. «The Lord has colored his word with various beauties, so that those who examine it can contemplate what they prefer. He has hidden all the treasures in his word, so that each of us may find riches in what we contemplate», reflects Saint Ephrem. The liturgical assembly should be aware of this when it listens to the Word. This is for everyone and for you; it builds the community and asks for your availability; fix your heart on God whatever your state of life

LE RICCHEZZE DELLA PAROLA

Gesù è un maestro singolare, diverso dagli scribi. Il suo insegnamento stupisce chi l'ascolta: non è statico e freddo, ma dà freschezza e nuova vita alle cose di Dio; non impone, ma propone. La sua parola tocca nel profondo, apre orizzonti di vita, inquieta, sveglia la mente e scalda il cuore, fa crescere dentro e responsabilizza. La gente osa dire che egli insegna con autorità: nessuna dissociazione in lui tra la parola e la vita. Gesù incarna le caratteristiche del profeta ideale preannunciato da Mosè. Ben se n'avvede il Maligno allorché le sue parole astutamente lusinghiere cadono nel vuoto davanti alla parola salvifica di quel profeta di Dio tra la gente. «Il Signore ha colorato la sua parola di bellezze svariate, perché coloro che la scrutano possano contemplare ciò che preferiscono. Ha nascosto nella sua parola tutti i tesori, perché ciascuno di noi trovi una ricchezza in ciò che contempla», riflette sant'Efrem. Ne sia consapevole l'assemblea liturgica, quando si pone in ascolto della Parola. Questa è per tutti e per te; edifica la comunità e chiede la tua disponibilità; fissa il cuore in Dio qualunque sia lo stato di vita
