2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER - DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

READINGS for SUNDAY, Apr. 7th (SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY)

1st Reading - Acts 4.32 - 35
2nd Reading - 1 John 5.1 - 6
Gospel - John 20.9 - 31

FAITH THAT OVERCOMES THE WORLD

The faith that conquers the world is revealed and expressed in love. Begotten in Christ through baptism, the believer is a happy witness of his Lord amid the limits and uncertainties of the days. He jealously guards the words of Jesus and acts accordingly. Faith is the principle of life in Christ, charity is its fulfillment. The Lucanian picture of the Church describes this reality of the origins, where the pride of being believers stands out with the beauty of being a community. Faith in the Risen One, witnessed without any fear and with joy, is the reason for one's existence and translates into the mutual concern of brotherhood. The hands and the side, which the risen Jesus reveals to his disciples and which makes the apostle Thomas question himself about his doubts and resistances, they are the seal of the infinite measure of merciful love of God. In the light of Easter, we understand the high and intense confession of faith by the apostle: «My Lord and my God!». The saving droplets, which flow from the wounds of the Risen One, have healed him of his disbelief; restorative nourishment, which is peace and forgiveness for those who believe and love.

LA FEDE CHE VINCE IL MONDO

La fede che vince il mondo si rivela e si esprime nell'amore. Generato in Cristo mediante il battesimo, il credente è testimone lieto del suo Signore tra i limiti e le incertezze dei giorni. Custodisce gelosamente le parole di Gesù e agisce di conseguenza. La fede è il principio della vita in Cristo, la carità ne è il compimento. Descrive questa realtà il quadro lucano della Chiesa delle origini, dove risalta la fierezza di essere credenti e la bellezza di essere comunità. La fede nel Risorto, testimoniata senza alcun timore e con gioia, è la ragione del proprio esistere e si traduce nella premura vicendevole della fraternità, perché nessuno manchi alla festa. Le mani e il fianco, che Gesù risorto mostra ai discepoli e che fa toccare all'apostolo Tommaso con i suoi dubbi e le sue resistenze, sono il sigillo della misura infinita dell'amore misericordioso di Dio. Nella luce della Pasqua comprendiamo l'alta e intensa confessione di fede dell'apostolo: «Mio Signore e mio Dio!». La rugiada salvifica, che sgorga dalle piaghe del Risorto, lo ha guarito dalla sua incredulità; linfa ristoratrice, che è pace e perdono per chi crede e ama.
