(3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER)

1st Reading - Acts 3.13 - 15, 17 - 19

2nd Reading - 1 John 2.1 - 5

Gospel - Luke 24.35 - 48

WITNESSES OF THE RISEN ONE

The Eleven and the other disciples are convinced that Jesus has risen; the two from Emmaus say they recognized him in the eucharistic gesture. Now, he resurrected, is there amongst them, but they do not recognize him, and are paralyzed by fear that a "ghost" is in front of them. In the effort of believing! Jesus trembles for them, shows them his wounds and invites them to touch them. He eats in front of them; confirms his identity: "It's really me!". The way of his presence has changed where before it was humble and now glorious, and the disciples must change their ways of looking at him; the eyes of the body must give way to the eyes of faith: believing and living his words with a clear mind and pure heart, because the love is perfect. Based on their firm and loving adherence to the Risen One the testimonial that he requests is grafted. He puts it into practice with frankness, the apostle Peter, when he announces Jesus crucified-risen and with indulgence invites those present to repentance and conversion. Every Christian – we, who today celebrate the memorial Eucharistic – is a disciple-witness of the Risen One. Words of life are donated to us, divine signs satiate us; what we have received, we announce it.

TESTIMONI DEL RISORTO

Gli Undici e gli altri discepoli sono persuasi che Gesù sia risorto; i due di Emmaus raccontano di averlo riconosciuto nel gesto eucaristico. Ora lui, risorto, è lì in mezzo a loro, e non lo riconoscono, paralizzati dalla paura davanti a un "fantasma". È la fatica del credere! Gesù trepida per loro, mostra le piaghe e invita a toccarle, mangia davanti a loro; conferma la sua identità: «Sono proprio io!». È cambiato il modo della sua presenza, prima umile e ora gloriosa, e i discepoli devono cambiare il loro modo di guardare a lui; gli occhi del corpo devono cedere il passo agli occhi della fede: credere e abitare le sue parole con mente limpida e cuore puro, perché l'amore sia perfetto. Sulla loro salda e amorevole adesione al Risorto s'innesta la testimonianza che egli chiede. La pone in atto con franchezza l'apostolo Pietro, allorché annuncia Gesù crocifisso-risorto e con indulgenza invita i presenti al pentimento e alla conversione. Ogni cristiano – noi, che oggi celebriamo il memoriale eucaristico – è discepolo-testimone del Risorto. Ci sono donate parole di vita, ci saziano segni divini; ciò che abbiamo ricevuto, noi lo annunciamo.
