READINGS for SUNDAY, Apr. 28th
(5th SUNDAY OF EASTER)

1st Reading - Acts 9.26 - 31
 2nd Reading - 1 John 3.18 - 24
 Gospel - John 15.1 - 8

WE ARE CREATED TO LOVE

This Sunday's liturgy of the Word puts the emphasis on the great evangelical commandment of love. «God is Love». The entire Bible extols this wonderful divine quality. It is a prevenient love that must extend to everyone because "God does not show preference for people" and he wants to give his salvation to all those who live honestly according to God. It is a love that has reached us effectively through Jesus and is all that he has accomplished for us. A love that accepts any sacrifice, that loves all brothers, even enemies. From us, who are "his friends", Jesus expects answers of love: "remain in him", by listening to his Word and with the observance of his commandments; look only for what pleases him because those who truly love have no other worries than to please the beloved in what he desires; pour on others this great love received because we cannot claim to love God if we don't let it flow back to our brothers the love that God has for us. From these two signs (or answers) we will recognize that our love for God is pure gold and not of vile falsely gilded lead.

SIAMO CREATI PER AMARE

La liturgia della Parola di questa domenica mette l'accento sul grande comandamento evangelico dell'amore. «Dio è amore». Tutta la Bibbia esalta questa meravigliosa qualità divina. Si tratta di un amore preveniente che deve estendersi a tutti perché «Dio non fa preferenze di persone» e vuole donare la sua salvezza a tutti coloro che vivono onestamente secondo Dio. È un amore che è giunto a noi fattivamente attraverso Gesù e tutto quello che lui ha compiuto per noi. Un amore che accetta qualsiasi sacrificio, che ama tutti i fratelli, anche i nemici. Da noi, che siamo "i suoi amici", Gesù si aspetta risposte d'amore: "rimanere in lui", con l'ascolto della sua Parola e con l'osservanza dei suoi comandamenti; cercare solo ciò che a lui piace perché chi ama veramente non ha altra preoccupazione che di piacere all'amato e di prevenirlo in ciò che desidera; riversare sugli altri questo grande amore ricevuto perché non possiamo pretendere di amare Dio se non facciamo rifluire sui fratelli l'amore che Dio ha avuto per noi. Da questi due segni (o risposte) riconosceremo che il nostro amore per Dio è di oro puro e non di vile piombo falsamente dorato.
