READINGS for SUNDAY, June 23RD
(12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME)

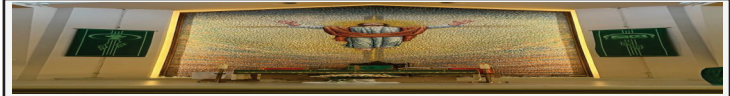

1st Reading - Job 38.1 - 4, 8 - 11
 2nd Reading - 2 Corinthians 5.14 - 17
 Gospel - Mark 4.35 - 41

LET'S TRUST THE LORD, ALWAYS

The evangelist Mark presents us with Jesus who, at the end of the day narrates the parable of the sower, he takes the initiative to cross with his disciples to the other shore. We too take Jesus as he is, on the boat of the Church, welcoming his Word in faith. During the night there was a severe storm and the waves reversed into the boat. Jesus was sleeping on the pillow in the stern. It is an image of His death. He wants to prepare his friends to stay firm in faith in the hour of danger. The disciples, afraid, cry out: "Master, do you not care that we are lost?" Jesus wakes up – image of his resurrection – and threatens the wind by telling it: «Be still, calm down!». Lord of the universe and Son of God, Jesus has absolute power over the forces of nature, which the author of the Book of Job and the psalmist attribute only to God. The Lord also says to us: «Why are you afraid? Do you still not have faith?» New beings in Christ, we already live from today as resurrected. Let us rejoice because in this Eucharist Jesus makes us participants in his Easter victory over sin and death, calms the storms of our life and gives peace and joy to our heart.

FIDIAMOCI DEL SIGNORE, SEMPRE

L'evangelista Marco ci presenta Gesù che, al termine del giorno in cui narra la parabola del seminatore, prende l'iniziativa di passare con i suoi discepoli all'altra riva. Anche noi prendiamo Gesù così com'è, sulla barca della Chiesa, accogliendo la sua Parola nella fede. Nella notte ci fu una tempesta di vento e le onde si rovesciarono nella barca. Gesù dormiva sul cuscino a poppa. È un'immagine della sua morte. Egli vuole preparare i suoi amici a rimanere saldi nella fede nell'ora del pericolo. I discepoli, impauriti, gridano: «Maestro, non ti importa che siamo perduti?». Gesù si desta – immagine della sua risurrezione – e minaccia il vento dicendogli: «Taci, calmati!». Signore dell'universo e Figlio di Dio, Gesù ha un potere assoluto sulle forze della natura, che l'autore del Libro di Giobbe e il salmista attribuiscono solo a Dio. Il Signore dice anche a noi: «Perché avete paura? Non avete ancora fede?». Nuove creature in Cristo, viviamo già da oggi da risorti. Ralleghiamoci perché in questa Eucaristia Gesù ci fa partecipi della sua vittoria pasquale sul peccato e sulla morte, placa le tempeste della nostra vita e dà pace e gioia al nostro cuore.

MESSAGE OF HIS GRACE FRANCIS LEO ON DEVOTION TO THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS in JUNE

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God" - Matthew 5:8. The pure of heart are those who know how to accept the teachings of Christ, the very Person of Christ, which requires full adherence to the Gospel. The vision of God promised to the pure of heart and includes the ultimate salvation in heaven where they will see God "face to face."
