READINGS for SUNDAY, Sept. 1st
(22nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME)

1st Reading - Deuteronomy 4.1 - 2, 6 - 8

 Gospel - Mark 7.1 - 8, 14 - 15, 21 - 23

HONOR GOD

WITH YOUR LIPS AND WITH YOUR HEART

In our life of faith the external acts, the prayers, the sacramental rites must have a counterpart in internal dispositions of the person, in the profound feelings with which they must be accompanied and lived. Without these provisions these acts would be liars and hypocrites. There is nothing left to do then but examine ourselves with seriousness and loyalty and, if necessary, call into question the expression of our Christian life. The convinced and convincing observance of the commandments is the only response that God expects from Israel, people of the Covenant and of divine favors: a personal answer, inspired by love, which gives value to exterior observance of the Law, which is necessary. St. Giacomo insists that the word of God must not only be listened to, but also made to bear fruit through love for God and charity towards others in need of help. The only external practice of religion, in fact, cannot please God. We need to adopt an internal attitude sincere and disinterested, which expresses itself in adoration of the one God and in availability for our brothers. It is, therefore, the only authenticity that gives value to religious practice.

ONORARE DIO CON LE LABBRA E CON IL CUORE

Nella nostra vita di fede gli atti esteriori, le preghiere, i riti sacramentali devono avere un corrispettivo nelle disposizioni interiori della persona, nei sentimenti profondi con i quali vanno accompagnati e vissuti. Senza tali disposizioni questi atti sarebbero menzogneri e ipocriti. Non resta allora altro da fare che esaminarci con serietà e lealtà e, se occorre, rimettere in questione l'espressione della nostra vita cristiana. La convinta e convincente osservanza dei comandamenti è la sola risposta che Dio si attende da Israele, popolo dell'Alleanza e dei divini favori: una risposta personale, ispirata dall'amore, che dà valore all'osservanza esteriore della Legge, che pur ci vuole. San Giacomo insiste nel dire che la parola di Dio dev'essere non solo ascoltata, ma anche fatta fruttificare attraverso l'amore per Dio e la carità verso il prossimo bisognoso di soccorso. La sola pratica esteriore della religione, infatti, non può piacere a Dio. Occorre far proprio un atteggiamento interiore sincero e disinteressato,
