READINGS for SUNDAY, Oct. 13th
(28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME)

1st Reading - Wisdom 7.7 - 11
 2nd Reading - Hebrews 4.12 - 13
 Gospel - Mark 10.17 - 30

WE ASK FOR THE GIFT OF WISDOM

How many times would we too, like that young man in the Gospel, wish that Jesus never had certain words mentioned, that they were not fixed in Scripture... How many times would we prefer the Gospel limit itself to indicating some external behaviors to be perfect and enter the kingdom of God... No! Jesus said those words in the Gospel and we can find them, if we want to be his disciples, we cannot cancel any part of it, hiding behind our own grievances and our wishes. Sometimes yes, the Word of God is a "double-edged sword". Jesus, in reality, is not telling the young rich man what to do, he is proposing to him a way of conscience, a lifestyle, an attitude of detachment from "mamma's boy", which is not just monetary wealth, but everything that keeps us tied to the compromises of the world and therefore to its logic. To avoid being trapped by dejected amazement, as happened to that young man, we ask the Lord for the gift of wisdom; there we will find our true wealth and will know how to evaluate it in the right balance of all human situations, so as not to remain stuck or overwhelmed.

CHIEDIAMO IL DONO DELLA SAPIENZA

Quante volte anche noi, come quel giovane del Vangelo, vorremmo che determinate parole Gesù non le avesse mai pronunciate, che non fossero fissate nella Scrittura... Quante volte preferiremmo che il Vangelo si limitasse a indicare alcuni comportamenti esteriori per essere perfetti ed entrare nel regno di Dio... No! Gesù quelle parole le ha dette, nel Vangelo noi le troviamo e, se vogliamo essere suoi discepoli, non possiamo annullarne una parte, nascondendoci dietro alle nostre rimostranze e ai nostri desiderata. A volte sì, la Parola di Dio è una "spada a doppio taglio". Gesù, in realtà, non sta dicendo al giovane ricco quello che deve fare, gli sta proponendo una via di coscienza, uno stile di vita, un atteggiamento interiore di distacco da "mammona", che non è solo ricchezza monetaria, ma tutto ciò che ci tiene legati ai compromessi del mondo e quindi alle sue logiche. Per non restare intrappolati dallo stupore avvilito, come successe a quel giovane, chiediamo al Signore il dono della sapienza; li troveremo la nostra vera ricchezza e sapremo valutare nel giusto equilibrio tutte le situazioni umane, così da non restarne bloccati o sopraffatti.
