LET'S APPROACH GOD WITH FULL TRUST

How many demands do we always have in prayer? At times, it seems that we are the ones teaching God what he should do, and not that his will be done! «Father, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." Do we know what is our true good? Do we know if what we have in mind really corresponds to the good of others? Do we know exactly what is God's will for us and others? So many questions... but it's good that we ask them, because our prayer does not become the exhibition of needs of which we already have the solution, even if we do not know how to find it ourselves and therefore we ask for God's "magic wand". What, then, is the right attitude to turn to the Lord? Humility, the awareness that it is the Father who knows us more than we can know ourselves; and therefore let us approach him with "full trust" to receive mercy and find grace, and wait with serenity for the fulfillment of his will with us and be satisfied of his knowledge.

ACCOSTIAMOCI CON PIENA FIDUCIA A DIO

Quante pretese abbiamo sempre nella preghiera... A volte sembra che siamo noi a insegnare a Dio quel che deve fare, e non che si compia la sua volontà! «Maestro, vogliamo che tu faccia per noi quello che ti chiederemo». Sappiamo noi qual è il nostro vero bene? Sappiamo se quello che abbiamo in mente corrisponde davvero al bene dell'altro? Sappiamo esattamente quale sia la volontà di Dio su noi e sugli altri? Quante domande... ma è bene che ce le facciamo, perché la nostra preghiera non diventi l'esibizione di esigenze di cui abbiamo già la soluzione, anche se non la sappiamo trovare da soli e quindi chiediamo la "bacchetta magica" di Dio. Qual è, allora, l'atteggiamento giusto per rivolgerci al Signore? L'umiltà, la consapevolezza che è il Padre a conoscerci più di quanto noi possiamo conoscere noi stessi; e quindi accostarci a lui con "piena fiducia" per ricevere misericordia e trovare grazia, e attendere con serenità il compimento in noi della sua volontà e saziarci della sua conoscenza.
