THE NOVELTIES OF CHRISTIAN LOVE

In response to a scribe, a man of culture, who asked what the essence of religion was, Jesus suggests that it is love, towards God and neighbour, is the root towards which converges every religious and life experience. Only love can give fullness to human existence and guide every gesture. In Jesus' words, however, there are important novelties. The two precepts of love in the old law were not enunciated side by side but appeared in two different books, Deuteronomy and Leviticus. Jesus unites them as if they are one. Almost two sides of the same coin. If it is easy to love God who is invisible, it is love committed to building fraternity, which is the verification of this love. A second novelty concerns the word "neighbor" which for Jesus is not only our family member, friend or one of our group, but everyone, even those who are enemies to us. To the love for God and neighbour it is also necessary to add love for ourselves. We love ourselves when we place ourselves in the truth, when we recognize the talents we have received and make them bear fruit, when we confess our weaknesses, when we understand that life has meaning if we give it to others.

LE NOVITÀ DELL' AMORE CRISTIANO

In risposta a uno scriba, uomo di cultura, che domandava quale fosse l'essenza della religione, Gesù suggerisce che è l'amore, verso Dio e il prossimo, la radice verso cui convergere ogni esperienza religiosa e di vita. Solo l'amore può dare pienezza all'esistenza umana e guidare ogni gesto. Nelle parole di Gesù, tuttavia, ci sono novità. I due precetti dell'amore nella legge antica non erano enunciati uno accanto all'altro ma figuravano in due libri diversi, il Deuteronomio e Levitico. Gesù li unisce come se ne costituissero uno solo. Quasi due facce della stessa medaglia. Se può essere facile amare Dio che è invisibile, è l'amore impegnato a costruire fraternità, che è la verifica di questo amore. Una seconda novità riguarda la parola "prossimo" che per Gesù non è solo il nostro familiare, l'amico o uno del nostro gruppo, ma tutti, perfino chi ci è ostile. All'amore verso Dio e verso il prossimo è necessario aggiungere anche verso noi stessi. Amiamo noi stessi quando ci poniamo nella verità, quando riconosciamo i talenti che abbiamo ricevuto e li facciamo fruttificare, quando confessiamo le nostre debolezze, quando comprendiamo che la vita ha senso se la doniamo agli altri.
