2nd Reading - Revelation 7.9, 14b - 17
Gospel - John 10.27 - 30

I KNOW MY SHEEP
AND THEY FOLLOW ME

There is a certainty that never fails in the life of those who have met the risen Lord and follow him: the certainty of being loved with a unique, personal, total, free love. To express this reality, Jesus uses an image very dear to him, that of the special relationship between the shepherd and his sheep, which reveals the intensity of the bond of love close to each of us, the intimate communion with him and the Father, from which nothing and no one can ever tear us away. For this reason, «the disciples were filled with joy», because, supported by the strength of the Spirit, they experienced even in the midst of adversity and tribulations the irrepressible beauty of belonging to Christ, of being «his people, a flock that he leads». Ultimately, this is where the true meaning of every vocation lies, in letting ourselves be led with confidence and docility by the “powerful tenderness” of the one who knows us like no other: the Lamb-Shepherd, who guides us “to the sources of the waters of life.” What life? The eternal life that we already receive from him here and now; the only one that responds to our deep desire for happiness and fullness.

IO CONOSCO LE MIE PECORE
ED ESSE MI SEGUONO

C'è una certezza che mai viene meno nella vita di chi ha incontrato il Signore risorto e lo segue: la certezza di essere amato di un amore unico, personale, totale, gratuito. Per esprimere questa realtà Gesù usa un'immagine a lui molto cara, quella del rapporto particolare tra il pastore e le sue pecore, che rivela l'intensità del legame d'amore stretto con ciascuno di noi, l'intima comunione con lui e il Padre, da cui niente e nessuno potrà mai strapparci. Per questo «i discepoli erano pieni di gioia», perché, sostenuti dalla forza dello Spirito, sperimentavano anche in mezzo a contrarietà e tribolazioni la bellezza insopprimibile di appartenere a Cristo, di essere «suo popolo, gregge che egli guida». In fondo sta proprio qui il senso autentico di ogni vocazione, nel lasciarsi condurre con confidenza e docilità dalla “tenerezza potente” di colui che ci conosce come nessun'altro: l'Agnello-Pastore, che ci guida «alle fonti delle acque della vita». Quale vita? La vita eterna che già qui e ora da lui riceviamo; la sola che risponde al nostro desiderio profondo di felicità e pienezza.

PRAYER FOR MARY'S INTERCESSION

"Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies, that this great suffering may end and that hope and peace may dawn anew. Plead with your divine Son, as you did at Cana, so that the families of the sick and the victims be comforted, and their hearts be opened to confidence and trust." Amen

ST. PADRE PIO Prayer Group

You must remember that you have in heaven, not only a Father, but also a Mother... Let us then have recourse to Mary. She is all sweetness, mercy, goodness and love for us because she is our Mother - St. Padre Pio

Ricordatevi che in cielo avete non solo un Padre, ma anche una Madre... Ricorriamo dunque a Maria. Lei è tutta dolcezza, misericordia, bontà e amore per noi, perché è nostra Madre
