READINGS for SUNDAY, June 15th

 Gospel - John 16.12 - 15

A HOPE THAT DOES NOT DISAPPOINT

"Hope does not disappoint because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit". This Pauline verse was chosen by the Pope to title the bubble announcing the Jubilee. The Holy Year is an event of forgiveness and reconciliation: walking towards Rome and towards the other Jubilee churches we live a journey of reconciliation with God and among ourselves. We can do this knowing that we will not be disappointed, because it is the Spirit, who fills our hearts with the love of God, who guides us in the truth, as Jesus promises in John. For the evangelist, "truth" is Jesus himself, who reveals to us the face of the Father and mediates the gift of the Spirit. Truth is the Trinitarian face of God, who welcomes us as reconciled children in his embrace. There is a double movement that the word of God reminds us of today: the Spirit pours out the love of God in us and at the same time leads us into the truth, that is, to dwell in Trinitarian love. The Wisdom of God, who has placed his delights among us, leads us into the joy of a hope that has the Trinity, and the encounter with his mystery of love, as the true goal of his pilgrimage.

UNA SPERANZA CHE NON DELUDE

«La speranza non delude perché l'amore di Dio è stato riversato nei nostri cuori per mezzo dello Spirito Santo». Questo versetto paolino è stato scelto dal Papa per intitolare la bolla di indizione del Giubileo. L'Anno santo è un evento di perdono e di riconciliazione: camminando verso Roma e verso le altre chiese giubilari viviamo un cammino di riconciliazione con Dio e tra di noi. Possiamo farlo sapendo di non rimanere delusi, perché è lo Spirito, che colma i nostri cuori dell'amore di Dio, a guidarci nella verità, come promette Gesù in Giovanni. Per l'evangelista, "verità" è Gesù stesso, che ci rivela il volto del Padre e media il dono dello Spirito. Verità è il volto trinitario di Dio, che ci accoglie come figli riconciliati nel suo abbraccio. C'è un duplice movimento che oggi la parola di Dio ci ricorda: lo Spirito riversa l'amore di Dio in noi e al tempo stesso ci conduce nella verità, cioè a dimorare nell'amore trinitario. La Sapienza di Dio, che ha posto le sue delizie tra di noi, ci conduce nella gioia di una speranza che ha la Trinità, e l'incontro con il suo mistero d'amore, quale traguardo vero del suo pellegrinaggio.
