 2nd Reading - 2 Timothy 2.8 - 13
 Gospel - Luke 17.11 - 19

AND WE, DO WE REMEMBER?

Two pagan lepers, of whom Scripture speaks to us today, teach us to say: "Thank you." They are a Syrian general and a poor man from Samaria. Both experienced the mercy of God through a miraculous healing and, before returning to their own country or their family, they returned to give thank you. The first to the man of God, the second to the man who is God, to Jesus. They did not appropriate the gift they had received. They recognized and honored the God who had transformed their lives. They remembered the love of God that gives us life. And we, do we remember? Saint Paul exhorts us today forcefully: "Remember Jesus Christ!" Remember him who healed us from the leprosy of sin and death, taking it upon himself! He cannot deny himself: "If we have died with him, we will also live with him; If we persevere, we will also reign with him." He is eternally faithful! What will we give to the Lord for all the benefits he has given us? How will we give thanks? In the most beautiful way: with today's celebration of the Eucharist and with a daily life that has a Eucharistic flavor.

E NOI, CI RICORDIAMO?

Due lebbrosi pagani, di cui oggi ci parla la Scrittura, ci insegnano a dire: «Grazie». Sono un generale siriano e un povero di Samaria. Entrambi hanno fatto esperienza della misericordia di Dio attraverso una guarigione miracolosa e, prima di rientrare nel proprio paese o nella propria famiglia, sono tornati per rendere grazie. Il primo dall'uomo di Dio, il secondo dall'uomo che è Dio, da Gesù. Non si sono appropriati del dono ricevuto. Hanno riconosciuto e onorato il Dio che aveva trasformato la loro vita. Si sono ricordati dell'amore di Dio che ci fa vivere. E noi, ci ricordiamo? San Paolo ci esorta oggi con forza: «Ricordati di Gesù Cristo!». Ricordati di colui che ci ha guariti dalla lebbra del peccato e della morte, prendendola su di sé! Egli non può rinnegare sé stesso: «Se moriamo con lui, con lui anche vivremo; se perseveriamo, con lui anche regneremo». È eternamente fedele! Che cosa renderemo al Signore per tutti i benefici che ci ha fatto? Come renderemo grazie? Nel modo più bello che ci sia: con la celebrazione odierna dell'Eucaristia e con una vita quotidiana che abbia un sapore eucaristico.
