OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

READINGS for SUNDAY, Nov 23rd

(Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe)

1st Reading - 2 Samuel 5.1 - 3

2nd Reading - Colossians 1.12 - 20

Gospel - Luke 23.35 - 43

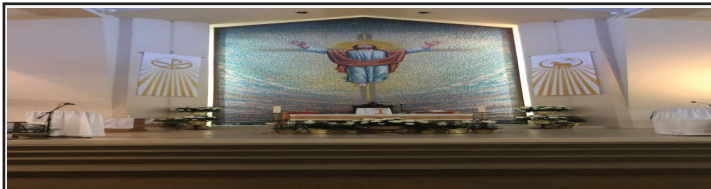

THE STRENGTH OF LOVE OF THE WOOD OF THE CROSS

Many worldly realities are governed by challenges: we compete in games, we argue about who is "top of the class," we always try to come first and win the applause of others. Small forms—among many others—that allow man to feel like a "king," above others. Even certain titles, such as superior, boss... become ambiguous when applied to situations where one should place oneself at the service of others. Jesus had frankly said that whoever wants to be first must be the servant of all, and before his Passion, he had shown this in the most humble gesture of washing the feet of his apostles, he... the Master and Lord! Thus, after the "symbolic" gesture, came the concrete fact: Jesus shows that true sovereignty is not exercised by verifying the thoughts and actions of others, but in such self-denial as to take on the pain of the world, to understand it, love it, and thus redeem it. St. John Chrysostom says: "If I call Christ king, it is precisely because I see him crucified; it is a king's duty to die for his people. He himself said it: 'The good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep.'" (Homilies on the Cross and the Thief).

LA FORZA D'AMORE DEL LEGNO DELLA CROCE

Moltissime realtà del mondo si regolano sulla sfida: si fa a gara nel gioco, si discute su chi sia "il primo della classe", si cerca sempre di arrivare primi e di ottenere l'applauso degli altri. Piccole forme – fra le molte altre – che permettono all'uomo di sentirsi "re", al di sopra degli altri. Anche certe denominazioni, come superiore, capo... risultano ambigue, se trasportate nelle situazioni in cui bisognerebbe mettersi al servizio degli altri. Gesù aveva detto francamente che chi vuol essere il primo sia il servo di tutti e, prima della passione, l'aveva mostrato nel gesto umilissimo di lavare i piedi ai propri apostoli, lui... il Maestro e Signore! Così, dopo il gesto "simbolico", è arrivato il fatto concreto: Gesù mostra che la vera sovranità non si esercita nella verifica dei pensieri e delle azioni altrui, ma in un'abnegazione tale da assumere il dolore del mondo, per comprenderlo, amarlo e così redimerlo. Dice san Giovanni Crisostomo: «Se chiamo re il Cristo, è proprio perché lo vedo crocifisso; è dovere di un re morire per il suo popolo. Lo ha detto lui stesso: "Il buon pastore dà la vita per le sue pecore"» (Omellerie sulla croce e il ladrone).
