BAPTISM OF THE LORD

READINGS for SUNDAY, Jan. 11th (BAPTISM OF THE LORD)

1st Reading - Isaiah 42.1 - 4, 6 - 7
2nd Reading - Acts 10.34 - 38
Gospel - Matthew 3.13 - 17

"THIS IS MY BELOVED SON"

The love contemplated in the mystery of Christmas is manifested today in the gesture of Jesus, who is baptized by John. It is no longer the humility of God made a child, but that of a mature man who takes on the features of a "servant" to show solidarity with humanity and fulfill the mission entrusted to him by the Father: salvation "for all." Love does not tolerate distance, because when you love, you desire to share everything with the person you love. For this reason, Christ immersed himself, sank into the human condition, becoming "one of us," so that from the depths of every history wounded by sin new life might rise as an Easter proclamation. The silence of such a humble gesture is answered by the voice of the Father; a word so personal and profound that it sustains and shapes an entire existence: "This is my beloved Son; with him I am well pleased." This same word is addressed to us, "children in the Son," consecrated in the sacrament of Baptism and intimately united with Christ for the same mission: to do good, to heal, to make God's love known to all. All that remains for us is to dive in... enlivened by the one Spirit who nests like a dove in the hearts of the "little ones."

«QUESTI È IL FIGLIO MIO, L'AMATO»

L'amore contemplato nel mistero del Natale si manifesta oggi nel gesto di Gesù che si fa battezzare da Giovanni. Non è più l'umiltà del Dio fatto bambino, ma quella dell'uomo maturo che assume i tratti del "servo" per rendersi solidale con gli uomini e adempiere la missione affidatagli dal Padre, la salvezza "per tutti". L'amore non ammette distanze perché quando ami desideri condividere tutto con la persona amata. Per questo Cristo si è immerso, si è inabissato nella condizione umana divenendo "uno di noi", perché dal fondo di ogni storia ferita dal peccato risalisce la vita nuova quale annuncio pasquale. Al silenzio di un gesto tanto umile risponde la voce del Padre; una parola così personale e profonda da sostenere e plasmare un'intera esistenza: «Questi è il Figlio mio, l'amato: in lui ho posto il mio compiacimento». Questa stessa parola è rivolta a noi, "figli nel Figlio", consacrati nel sacramento del Battesimo e intimamente uniti a Cristo per la stessa missione: beneficiare, risanare, far conoscere a tutti l'amore di Dio. Non ci resta che tuffarci... vivificati dall'unico Spirito che nidifica come colomba nel cuore dei "piccoli".

POPE LEO XIV MESSAGE AT NEW YEARS DAY MASS

On the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, "May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord let his face shine on you and be gracious to you. May the Lord uncover his face to you and bring you peace". At the beginning of the new year, and as we approach the conclusion of the Jubilee of Hope, let us draw near to the Nativity scene in faith. Let us approach it as the place of "unarmed and disarming" peace par excellence – a place of blessing where we recall the wonders the Lord has worked in the history of salvation and in our own lives. Then, like the humble witnesses at the grotto, let us set out once more, "glorifying and praising God" for all that we have seen and heard. May this be our commitment and our resolve for the months ahead, and, indeed, for the whole of our Christian lives.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

JANUARY 18–25, 2026

This year's theme "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the hope of your calling." (Ephesians 4:4). These words of St. Paul see the unity of the community of believers as a vocation, a calling by the Holy Spirit. This unity is linked to one hope and practiced in communal support, by embracing diversity while maintaining communion. Prayer together is an act of humility, hope and love, and ultimately a divine gift leading us to deeper and fuller unity in the Body of Christ.
