“APOSTLES” OF THE KINGDOM

At the root of every apostolate is the prayer of a sensitive heart, like that of Christ, who is moved with compassion at seeing the crowds tired and exhausted, like sheep without a shepherd. It is precisely from this profound compassion that Jesus' invitation springs: "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest!" How much lost humanity needs shepherds, workers of the Kingdom, people of selfless love who will care for it! God first did this with us and, in his plan of love, he desires to do it also through us. If the Book of Exodus reminds us how he lifted us on eagles' wings to establish his covenant with us, the Letter to the Romans shows that his gratuitous love reached its pinnacle when the Son loved us to the point of dying, "while we were still sinners." Who, discovering themselves loved in this way, doesn't feel the urge to love in return? It's the dynamic of the kingdom of God: "Freely you have received, freely give." If we are loved, we love as apostles, a "kingdom of priests" sent to preach, heal, resurrect... to be a sacrament of God's life for each of his children.

“APOSTOLI” DEL REGNO

Amonte di ogni apostolato vi è la preghiera di un cuore sensibile, come quello di Cristo, che si lascia ferire di compassione nel vedere le folle stanche e sfinite, come pecore senza pastore. È proprio da questa profonda compassione che scaturisce l'invito di Gesù: «Pregate il signore della messe perché mandi operai nella sua messe!». Quanto bisogno ha l'umanità smarrita di pastori, di operai del Regno, di gente donata che si prenda cura di essa! Dio per primo lo ha fatto con noi e, nel suo disegno d'amore, desidera farlo anche attraverso di noi. Se il Libro dell'Esodo ci ricorda come ci ha sollevato su ali di aquila per stringere con noi la sua alleanza, la Lettera ai Romani manifesta che il suo amore gratuito ha raggiunto il culmine quando il Figlio ci ha amato fino a morire, «mentre eravamo ancora peccatori». Chi, scoprendosi amato così, non sente l'urgenza di riamare a sua volta? È la dinamica del regno di Dio: «Gratuitamente avete ricevuto, gratuitamente date». Se siamo amati, amiamo come apostoli, "regno di sacerdoti" mandati a predicare, guarire, risuscitare... ad essere sacramento della vita di Dio per ciascuno dei suoi figli.

MESSAGE ON THE MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS FROM HIS EMINENCE FRANK CARDINAL LEO

May Jesus and Mary be in your souls.

In the Gospels, we often see how Jesus responds to people with a sensitive heart that reveals itself in a remarkable attentiveness to their suffering. The evangelists repeatedly describe him as being “moved with compassion”. He notices the hungry crowd before they ask for food; he stops for the blind man others try to silence, and he restores dignity to those whom society has forgotten. These moments reveal something profound: the heart of Christ is never distant from human need. It is a heart that sees, listens, and responds. And as the Church pondered these scenes - above all in the act of redemption when the side of Christ Crucified was opened - we too learn to speak ever more clearly of the love revealed in his Heart.
