READINGS for SUNDAY, Sept. 27th(26th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME)

1st Reading - Ezekiel 18.25 - 28

2nd Reading - Philippians 2.1 - 11

Gospel - Matthew 21.28 - 32

GOD'S WORD SHAKES, QUESTIONS, AND TRANSFORMS

The Liturgy of the Word invites us today to take two steps. The first comes from recognizing that there is infidelity and sin in our lives. We must therefore pause and "look," finding the courage to reflect on our attitudes and choices, and to say no--firmly--to what displeases God. Jesus holds up as models, the tax collectors and prostitutes who welcomed the Baptist's call to conversion—reminding us that conversion gives rise to saints! Is there generosity in our lives? Are there feelings of love and compassion? Paul urges us not to stop there. We must go further—always further—and serve unity among all. We cannot be content with just a little love. We must aim for the complete transformation of our sentiments, gradually making our own the "sentiments of Jesus," who, out of love, emptied Himself, humbled Himself, and became obedient even unto death. Holiness is a continuous conversion, always directed toward building unity among all in God. Let us go, then, and work together in the Lord's vineyard! Not with words, but with deeds!

LA PAROLA DI DIO SCUOTE,
INTERROGA E TRASFORMA

La liturgia della Parola ci invita oggi a fare due passi. Il primo viene dal riconoscere che, nella nostra vita, ci sono infedeltà e peccato. Quindi bisogna fermarci e "guardare", avere il coraggio di riflettere sui nostri atteggiamenti, sulle nostre scelte e di dire di no a quello che a Dio non piace. Con fermezza. Gesù ci dà come modelli i pubblicani e le prostitute che hanno accolto la chiamata alla conversione del Battista. Ricordandoci che la conversione suscita dei santi! Nella nostra vita c'è generosità, ci sono sentimenti di amore e di compassione? Paolo ci esorta a non fermarci. Dobbiamo andare oltre, sempre oltre, e servire l'unità fra tutti. Non possiamo accontentarci di un poco di amore. Occorre mirare alla piena trasformazione dei nostri sentimenti, facendo nostri man mano i "sentimenti di Gesù" che, per amore, si svuotò, si umiliò, si fece obbediente fino alla morte. La santità è una conversione continua sempre tesa alla costruzione dell'unità fra tutti in Dio. Andiamo, sì, e lavoriamo insieme nella vigna del Signore! Non a parole, ma con i fatti!
