READINGS for SUNDAY, October 4th(27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME)

1st Reading - Isaiah 5.1 - 7

2nd Reading - Philippians 4.6 - 9

Gospel - Matthew 21.33 - 43

A FEAST FOR THE EYES!

Through the prophet Isaiah, God describes His people as a vineyard that produces sour grapes instead of the desired fruit. In the Gospel parable, the vineyard appears to yield the expected harvest, yet the tenants seize it through violence. They even go so far as to kill their master's son in order to appropriate his inheritance. These two parables of the vineyard thus illustrate two opposing ways of preventing God's grace from bearing fruit in our lives: either rendering it void by failing to let its fruitfulness work within us, or appropriating its fruits for ourselves—believing them to be the product of our own efforts rather than of what God accomplishes in our lives. Yet God's care for us and for His vineyard is stronger and more steadfast than our unfaithfulness. Paradoxically—in the very paradox of Easter—even the killing of the Son causes God's grace to spread and bear fruit among all the peoples of the earth, who are called—as Saint Paul writes—to be kept in His peace. Truly, this surpasses our understanding and is a marvel to our eyes!

MERAVIGLIA PER I NOSTRI OCCHI!

Attraverso il profeta Isaia, Dio descrive il suo popolo come una vigna che produce acini acerbi, anziché l'uva desiderata. Nella parabola narrata dal Vangelo la vigna sembra produrre i frutti attesi, ma sono i contadini a impossessarsene con la violenza. Giungono addirittura a uccidere il figlio del loro signore, in modo da appropriarsi della sua eredità. Le due parabole della vigna ci descrivono così due modi opposti per non consentire alla grazia di Dio di fruttificare nella nostra vita. O renderla vana, senza lasciare operare in noi la sua fecondità, oppure appropriarci dei suoi frutti, ritenendo che siano prodotti dal nostro impegno, anziché da ciò che Dio compie nella nostra esistenza. La cura di Dio per noi e per la sua vigna è tuttavia più forte e tenace delle nostre infedeltà. Paradossalmente, ma si tratta del paradosso della Pasqua, persino l'uccisione del Figlio fa sì che la grazia di Dio si estenda e produca i suoi frutti in tutti i popoli della terra, chiamati – come scrive san Paolo – ad essere custoditi nella sua pace. Davvero questo supera la nostra intelligenza ed è meraviglia per i nostri occhi!

Nei momenti di oscurità, stringere la corona del Rosario è come tenere per mano la tua Madre Santissima. Recita il Rosario ogni giorno e abbandonati nelle mani di Maria: Lei si prenderà cura di te. San Padre Pio
