READINGS for SUNDAY, November 1st
(ALL SAINTS)
1st Reading - Revelation 7.2 - 4, 9 - 14
2nd Reading - 1 John 3.1 - 3
Gospel - Matthew 5.1 - 12a

WE SHALL BE LIKE HIM, WE SHALL SEE HIM AS HE IS

Today we celebrate a very ancient solemnity, dear to the devotion and veneration of the entire Church. Throughout the liturgical year, the Church commemorates the saints individually; but on this day, it seeks to celebrate the glory of all the saints, gathering them, as it were, into one great plea for intercession, so that all of humanity may be united in the eternal life of the Kingdom of God. Furthermore, in this celebration, the Church recognizes its deepest identity: that of being immersed in the Paschal mystery of Christ—a mystery which, for the believer, springs forth from the waters of Baptism. That seed of life, desired and welcomed as a gift of the Holy Spirit, is destined to grow and develop according to the path of the Beatitudes—which are, first and foremost, a reflection of the life of Christ Himself, and which therefore define the identity of the Christian who believes in Him. By opening ourselves to this way of existence, we can increasingly "wash our robes and make them white in the blood of the Lamb," and attain the crown of glory that God the Father wishes to bestow upon each one of us, for we are all His children.

NOI SAREMO SIMILI A LUI, LO VEDREMO COSÌ COME EGLI È

Celebriamo oggi una solennità antichissima, cara alla devozione e alla venerazione di tutta la Chiesa. Durante il corso dell'anno liturgico, la Chiesa, di volta in volta, fa memoria dei santi, ma in questo giorno vuole celebrare la gloria di tutti i santi, quasi a convogliarli in un'unica grande richiesta di intercessione perché l'umanità intera sia radunata nella vita eterna del regno di Dio. Non solo, in questa celebrazione la Chiesa riconosce la sua identità più profonda, cioè quella di essere immersa nella Pasqua di Cristo, che per il credente scaturisce dalle acque del Battesimo. Quel germe di vita, desiderato e accolto come dono dello Spirito Santo, è destinato a crescere e a svilupparsi secondo le indicazioni delle Beatitudini, che anzitutto sono una rappresentazione della vita stessa di Cristo e costituiscono perciò l'identità del cristiano che crede in lui. Aprendoci a questo tipo di esistenza, possiamo sempre più «lavare le nostre vesti, rendendole candide nel sangue dell'Agnello» e raggiungere la corona di gloria che Dio Padre desidera donare a ciascuno, perché noi tutti siamo suoi figli.
