33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READINGS for SUNDAY, November 15th
(33RD Sunday in Ordinary Time)
1st Reading - Proverbs 31.10-13, 16-18, 20, 26, 28-31
2nd Reading - 1 Thessalonians 5.1-6
Gospel - Matthew 25.14-30

AN ACTIVE WAITING

The message of the parable of the talents presents us with a surprising truth: God trusts us. He entrusts "to each according to his ability" a portion of His possessions, and then departs, granting everyone a sphere of responsibility so that His gifts may be put to use and bear fruit. Those who are faithful do not merely preserve what they have been given, nor do they retreat into fear—which only paralyzes a person and leads to a wasted life. Conversely, those who remain watchful, mindful of the "master's" return, do not stand still; rather, they work with boldness, multiply the good, and build for the future. Gospel vigilance inspires us to be industrious and to inhabit time with openness and perseverance: it does not wait for good things to happen on their own, but actively brings them about—with hands that become a sign of an incarnate faith, dedicated to the service of one's brothers and sisters. Since the Lord has promised to return, we are invited to remain awake and sober, so as not to fall into a spiritual slumber. Such vigilance takes the form of an inner clarity—a state of mind that refuses to be numbed by false certainties or fleeting, transient things. Instead, it keeps our focus oriented toward the light and toward what truly matters: the Lord and His return, so that we may share in His joy—a joy that consists of profound communion with God.

UN'ATTESA OPEROSA

Il messaggio della parabola dei talenti ci pone davanti a una verità sorprendente: Dio si fida di noi. Egli consegna "a ciascuno i suoi beni secondo la sua capacità" per poi partire, affidando a ognuno spazi di responsabilità perché i suoi doni siano impiegati per diventarefecondi. Chi è fedele non si limita a conservare e non si rifugia nella paura: questa paralizza e fa sprecare la propria vita. Chi, invece,veglia consapevole del ritorno del "padron\e" non resta immobile: lavora con audacia, moltiplica il bene, costruisce futuro. La vigilanza evangelica fa diventare operosi e abitare il tempo con disponibilità e costanza: non aspetta che il bene accada ma lo realizza con le mani che diventano segno di una fede incarnata e a servizio dei fratelli. Se il Signore ha promesso che ritornerà, ecco l'invito ad essere desti e sobri per non assopirsi. La vigilanza assume il volto della lucidità interiore che non si fa anestetizzare dalle false certezze o da ciò che passa, ma fa rimanere orientati alla luce e a ciò che conta: il Signore e il suo ritorno, per prendere parte alla sua gioia che è la comunione profonda con Dio.
